

Regional Support for Schools of Nursing

Regional Chair

Dr. Susan Meskis: Susan Meskis, DNP, RN, CLNC is an Assistant Professor at the University of Alaska, Anchorage, School of Nursing. Launching an elective nursing course focused on Palliative Care and End of Life issues, she is dedicated to preparing future nurses to excel in their calling. Dr. Meskis continues her work educating and supporting communities throughout Alaska and those serving the Alaskan Native communities. She has served on ELNEC teams both nationally and internationally. Dr. Meskis was acknowledged by ELNEC for her work in Alaska and the recipient of the 2017 ELNEC Award. ELNEC continues to be the foundation of her work and the catalyst for program development in Alaska.
