Dear colleagues,

As you may recall, the CCNE Board of Commissioners acted in April 2026 to approve the revised CCNE Standards for Accreditation of Entry-to-Practice Nurse Residency Programs.

As part of CCNE's efforts to provide resources and training on the revised Standards prior to their implementation on January 1, 2027, a free webinar series is being offered to CCNE's community of interest to describe significant changes to the Standards. The first session will review significant changes to Standards I-III, while the second will focus on Standard IV. Details for each session, including links for registration, may be found below.
