Slide 1

There's an App for That

Greer Glazer, PhD, CNP, FAAN
Missi Willmarth-Stec, DNP, APRN, CNM

Slide 2

Objectives

- Explain the leadership and culture required for integration of technology

- Describe the model and process for implementation and faculty development

- Outline app usage, the selection rubric and use of the SAMR model

- Connect apps to faculty and students and define the utility in doctoral nursing education

- Demonstrate innovation as apps in education meets social media

Slide 3

Leadership

- Shared Leadership
  - University Level Support
  - iCoN Initiative
- Individual Leadership
  - Undergraduate Programs
  - Graduate Programs
- Community Engagement
  - Board of Advisors
  - Hospital Partners

Slide 4

Building Culture

- At UC College of Nursing, our vision is "Through creative leveraging of technology, UC College of Nursing will lead the transformation of health care in partnership informed by the people we serve."

- Theories in Practice
  - 6-S Model TM
 - TPACK Model
  - SAMR Model

Slide 5

Faculty Development

- iPad Institute 1.0

- iPad Institute 2.0

- CATER

- Faculty Lunch-and-Learn

- Debriefing Sessions

- Apple Vanguard Program

Slide 6

Student Preparation
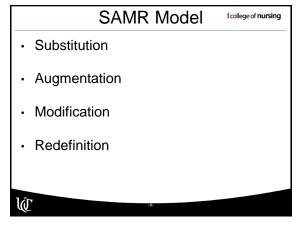

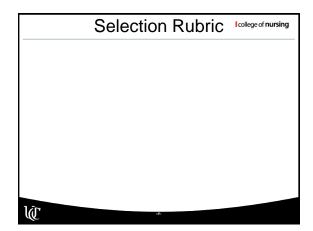

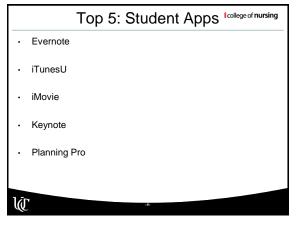

- Summer iCoN Institute

- iCoN Ambassador Program

- Student Lunch-and-Learn

Apps in Education college of nursing

- Methodology

- Integration into curriculum

- Moving towards digital learning

SAMR Model college of nursing

- Substitution

- Augmentation

- Modification

- Redefinition

Selection Rubric college of nursing

Top 5: Student Apps college of nursing

- Evernote

- iTunesU

- iMovie

- Keynote

- Planning Pro

Top 5: Faculty Apps college of nursing

- iAnnotate

- Evernote

- iThought

- Keynote

- Explain Everything

Application: TED college of nursing
Application: Evernote

Technology and Social Media

- Spreading the word

  - Twitter

  - LinkedIn

  - Facebook