

2024 AACN STUDENT POLICY SUMMIT

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q: DO I NEED PERMISSION TO REGISTER?

A: Yes, you will need to have the permission of your Dean in order to attend the Student Policy Summit. This ensures that your Dean is aware of your attendance.

Q: WHY IS REGISTRATION LIMITED TO TWO STUDENTS FROM EACH SCHOOL?

A: To ensure we have diversity of schools represented, we limit the number of students from each school attending at the beginning of the registration period. There are often times when registration is expanded to allow additional students to attend, but this does not occur until the end of February.

Q: CAN I STAY AT A DIFFERENT HOTEL?

A: You are not required to stay at the Washington Marriott Georgetown to attend the Student Policy Summit. However, there is a block of rooms reserved for Summit attendees, and attendees are encouraged to reserve a room in the block. To see the hotel, and for more information, please click here.

Q: IS THERE A WAY FOR ME TO CONNECT WITH OTHER STUDENTS TO SPLIT A HOTEL ROOM?

A: We are unable to split rooms with attendees from different schools. If you want to split a room with somebody from your school, please contact your Dean to see if arrangements can be made.

Q: WHAT IS THE DRESS CODE FOR THE SUMMIT?

A: The dress code is business professional.

Q: CAN MY WIFE/HUSBAND/FRIEND/PROFESSOR JOIN ME AT THE STUDENT POLICY SUMMIT?

A: If you would like someone else to travel with you to DC, that is fine. However, no guests will be permitted to attend the Summit activities.

Q: WHAT AIRPORT SHOULD I FLY INTO?

A: Reagan National Airport (DCA) is the closest airport to Washington D.C. From there, you can take the Blue metro line to the Foggy Bottom station, the closest metro stop to the Park Hyatt hotel.

If you fly into Dulles International Airport (IAD), you can take the silver line and get off at the Foggy Bottom station.

If you fly into Baltimore-Washington International Airport (BWI), you can take either the Marc or Amtrak train to Washington D.C. Union Station. From there, take the metro's Red line to Metro Center, transfer to the Blue, Orange, or Silver Line, and get off at Foggy Bottom. Click here for a map of the DC Metro.

Q: ARE THERE HILL VISITS THIS YEAR?

A: Yes, there will be Hill visits this year. You will join your Dean during your visits to Capitol Hill this year. More information will be made available to you prior to the Summit and during the event.

Q: WILL THE CONFERENCE ACCOMMODATE MY DIETARY RESTRICTIONS?

A: AACN will do its best to accommodate any dietary restrictions we are made aware of. Please contact Rachel Stevenson at RStevenson@aacnnursing.org should you have any dietary restrictions.

Q: WHO DO I CONTACT FOR MORE INFORMATION?

A: You can contact Rachel Stevenson at RStevenson@aacnnursing.org for more information.
