

Module 3: Book Review Assignment

Sometimes when we are enrolled in a rigorous academic program, we never take the time to read a book for pleasure. Choose one palliative care-related non-fiction book to read over the next seven weeks. Some of my favorites are:

- Being Mortal, Atul Gawande
- When Breathe Becomes Air, Paul Kalanithi
- The Four Things That Matter Most, Ira Byock
- Staring at The Sun, Irvin Yalom
- The Top Five Regrets of the Dying, Bonnie Ware

More ideas from my reading list:

- Bearing the Unbearable: Love, Loss and the Heartbreaking Path of Grief, Joanne Cacciatore
- Exit Strategy: Depriving Death of its Strangeness, David Oliver
- With the End in Mind: Dying, Death, and Wisdom in an Age of Denial, Kathryn Mannix
- That Good Night, Life and Medicine in the Eleventh Hour, Sunita Puri
- The End of Your Life Book Club, Will Schwalbe
- The Wisdom of Listening, Mark Brady
- Awake at the Bedside, Koshin Paley Ellison
- Moral Resilience, Cynthia Rushton
- My Father's Wake: How the Irish Teach Us to Live, Love, and Die, Kevin Toolis
- Grieving While Black: An Antiracist Take on Oppression and Sorrow, Breeshia Wade
- Living Well with a Serious Illness: A Guide to Palliative Care for Mind, Body, and Spirit, Robin Bennett Kanarek
- The Story of a Heart: Beyond the Beating Heart, Rachel Clarke
- Farewell: Vital End-of-Life Questions with Candid Answers from a Leading Palliative and Hospice Physician, Edward Creagan

These lists offer suggestions, feel free to choose another non-fiction palliative care-focused book. Email us if you have a question about your book choice. Feel free to read the book or listen to an audiobook. Your local library probably has several of these titles if you do not wish to purchase a book.

INSTRUCTIONS

Write a 1-2-page response paper on the book you read this semester. A response paper allows the use of first-person statements. Apply APA 7th edition style and formatting; an abstract is not required. Use scholarly writing free from spelling and grammatical errors. A template of the paper has been provided if you wish to use it.

Please note: The use of generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) technology for learning activities and written assignments in this course is prohibited as it violates the principle of academic integrity.

Address the following prompts in your book review.

- In the introduction, provide information on the book you chose and why you selected this book.
- Demonstrate in your writing that you actually read the book!
- Share something you learned by reading this book and relate it to palliative care communication in nursing care.
- Conclude with your recommendation – is the book worth the read?
- Provide the citation for the book on a reference page using APA style and formatting.
- Include one additional in-text and reference page citation from a peer-reviewed journal article on palliative care. You may use any of the articles in the Optional Readings folders or use library resources.

SUBMITTING YOUR ASSIGNMENT

- Save your paper in Word, using the file naming convention:
M3_BookReview_lastname
- Submit your paper via Moodle, under the Assignments tab. Other file types are not accepted and will not be graded.
- Due: 10/11/25 by 11:55 pm

GRADES

The assignment is worth 100 points (15% of your total grade). Refer to the grading rubric as you prepare your assignment.

The following late point deductions will apply: five points for each day after submission deadline. No work will be accepted beyond five days after the original due date.
