

AACN

Leadership Networks

Great networking, robust brainstorming, and useful ideas that can be implemented at most schools.

American Association
of Colleges of Nursing

The Voice of Academic Nursing

AACN

Leadership Networks

More than 1,900 members strong and growing every month, the networks bring peer professionals together to share best practices and success stories, sharpen leadership skills, and take full advantage of AACN resources.

“The Leadership Networks offer nursing faculty and staff a unique opportunity to immediately connect with their colleagues at nursing schools across the country. Nursing education issues often arise quickly, and the ability to reach out to peers who have faced similar challenges is invaluable.”

— Deborah Trautman, PhD, RN, FAAN
President and CEO, AACN

8 EXCLUSIVE NETWORKS FOR NURSING FACULTY AND STAFF:

Organizational Leadership Network (OLN)

For academic nursing leaders with broad administrative duties, including associate and assistant deans

Nursing Advancement Professionals (NAP)

For those in advancement, development, alumni relations, and communications

Faculty Leadership Network (FLN)

For faculty whose focus is teaching didactic and clinical courses in baccalaureate and graduate nursing programs

Practice Leadership Network (PLN)

For those who administer or are engaged in faculty practice programs

Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Leadership Network (DEILN)

For faculty, deans, and staff with an interest in advancing diversity, equity, and inclusion.

Business Officers of Nursing Schools (BONUS)

For business, financial, technological, and administrative managers

Graduate Nursing Admissions Professionals (GNAP)

For those who engage in graduate nursing student recruitment, admissions, student affairs, and career services

Research Leadership Network (RLN)

For those who have leadership roles facilitating research

“The AACN Networks allow me to stay connected with colleagues all over the country-with timely responses to issues that arise in educating our students and leading our organizations.”

— Leadership Network Member Since 2008

Membership benefits you and your professional development. Whether you are just starting out in the profession, or you are proudly looking back at a lifetime of achievements, membership in any one of our seven leadership network is of extraordinary value.

As a member, you have the opportunities to volunteer to serve on working groups and projects such as AACN conference programming and advisory groups and on a Leadership Network Steering Committee, earn (or receive) CEU credits, and participate in conferences geared around subjects of common interest.

AACN Connect

AACN Connect is AACN's premier online community for AACN members to communicate and engage with nursing faculty across the nation without the expense of a face to face meeting. Members of the Leadership Networks have a private space to take their online discussions to a new level. With the ability to connect with fellow members, discuss the issues in nursing education most pertinent to you and your team, and share critical resources with your peers from across the country in a members-only resource library, AACN Connect is a great benefit to all network members. Join us today!

ENGAGE • DISCUSS • POST • SHARE

PRACTICE LEADERSHIP NETWORK (PLN)

The Practice Leadership Network (PLN) is the nation's premier networking group for those engage in faculty practice programs. PLN fosters professional growth and development, information sharing, communication, and discussion of key issues.

Connect with peers to ask and answer questions, share resources, and discuss key issues faculty practice professionals face.

Discuss the latest trends and challenges in nursing education in an exclusive online community just for PLN members.

Earn CEUs through the year with conference sessions and webinars.

American Association
of Colleges of Nursing

The Voice of Academic Nursing

Two Easy Ways To Join

Visit us on the Web at www.aacnnursing.org/Leadershipnetworks

Call us at 202.463.6930

American Association
of Colleges of Nursing

The Voice of Academic Nursing

655 K Street, NW, Suite 750

Washington, DC 20001

www.aacnnursing.org