

PROMOTE RECOGNITION OF YOUR CNL CREDENTIAL

- Display your framed CNL certificate and wear the CNL lapel pin.
- List your CNL credential on business cards, stationery, etc.
- Announce earning your certification and recertification in local and national publications. See sample press release at www.aacnursing.org/CNL-Certification/CNL-Day.
- Give a presentation promoting CNL certification and the CNL skill set.
- Write an article for publication on the benefits of the CNL and certification.
- Document the benefits of CNL certification for your next job performance evaluation.
- Include the CNL credential in your portfolio.
- Include certification status in your curriculum vitae or resume.
- Include the credential whenever your name is professionally listed.
- Join the Clinical Nurse Leader Association at CNLAssociation.org.
- Get social with CNC! Join us at Facebook.com/CNCsCNL, Twitter.com/CNLatAACN and Linkedin.com/company/commission-on-nurse-certification
- Participate in CNC's Nurses Lounge at Nurseslounge.com/lounges/profile/16380/clinical-nurse-leader.

USE OF THE CNL CREDENTIAL

Following notification of earning the CNL, the successful CNL certificant may utilize the CNL designation. Below is a sample of how CNL should appear as a credential:

Full Name, MSN, RN, CNL

IMPORTANT: Log into the CNC Portal to update your profile, name and contact information to ensure appropriate listing in the CNL Directory at www.aacnursing.org/cnl-certification.

For information and resources for the activities listed above, go to www.aacnursing.org/cnl-certification.