

GNSA AWARD FOR PHD-DNP COLLABORATION EXCELLENCE Nomination Form Content

To apply for the GNSA Award for PhD-DNP Collaboration Excellence, please review the items in Part I and II below that you will need for submitting your application via our online form.

PART I: NOMINEE AND NOMINATOR CONTACT INFORMATION

- Name of PhD Student
- PhD Student's Email
- PhD Student's Institution
- Name of DNP Student
- DNP Student's Email
- DNP Student's Institution
- List any additional student team members. Include name, program (PhD or DNP), email, and institution.
- Title of the award
- Name of Nominator
- Nominator's Phone Number
- Nominator's Email
- Personal Statement (1,000 word maximum)

The statement should address the first four criteria below.

1. Demonstrates collaborative work that has the potential to advance science or influence outcomes related to health care, nursing practice, and/or health policy.
2. Demonstrates scholarly rigor and contribution to the profession.
3. Exemplifies innovation in PhD-DNP collaboration and leadership in nursing practice.
4. Describes the collaborative effort between the PhD student(s) and DNP student(s) to complete this project.
5. Statement is written jointly by the PhD-DNP team and addresses how the project contributes to their current and future practice and career goals as well as addresses the above criteria.

PART II: PHD/DNP NOMINEE - ABSTRACT SECTION

- PhD-DNP Collaboration Abstract Title (limit 100 characters)
- Background and Significance (limit 100 words)
- Purpose/Objective(s) and or Specific Aims (limit 75 words)
- Conclusion(s) (limit 100 words)
- PhD Student's Curriculum Vitae (limit 5 pages)
- DNP Student's Curriculum Vitae (limit 5 pages)
- Additional Comments

To submit your application, visit: <https://aacn.wufoo.com/forms/gnsa-award-for-phddnp-collaboration-excellence/>

CONTACT

Please direct any questions related to this awards program to gnsa@aacnnursing.org.