registration!

AACN's Business Officers of Nursing Schools (BONUS) Annual Meeting offers a unique opportunity to stay informed about future trends in academic nursing, strategies to strengthen alternative sources of revenue, learning skills for budget forecasting and new budget models, opportunities for leadership and team building, and so much more. Take advantage of this opportunity to learn from thought leaders and peers, meet face-to-face with BONUS network members, and take away innovative strategies to help you succeed in your role back home.

Networking and Group Dinners

Small group networking dinners will be held on Wednesday evening at various restaurants on Captiva Island. In addition, a full group dinner will be held at the South Seas Island Resort on Thursday evening. This is your opportunity to network with your peers and build on relationships made during the meeting. Sign-ups for the networking dinners will be available during registration. The registration fee for the Thursday evening dinner at the resort is $60 per person (guests are welcome!)

Emerging Solutions/Breakout Sessions

Chicken Soup for the Budget Manager's Soul: Bringing All the Ingredients Together

Explore best practices for forecasting, creating, and managing budgets to optimize your fiscal year.

Diversity, Inclusion, and Social Justice

Where do you draw the line? Learn best practices in HR policies to achieve success.

Emotional Intelligence – EQ vs IQ

A key difference between individuals seen as managers versus leaders is the level of one's emotional intelligence (EI). This session explores the definition of EI and the effect it has on your role within your school.

Faculty Workload Formulas

Learn what tools are being used to calculate faculty workload.

Space Policy and Facility Challenges

Does your school struggle with providing space for your faculty and staff? Do you have a policy in place to address space management? Learn creative ways other nursing schools are addressing these issues.

Stay connected all year long by joining the BONUS Leadership Network! BONUS members benefit from year-round networking and opportunities to foster professional growth and development and participate in information sharing, communication, and discussion of key issues among fellow nursing school staff at AACN member institutions. Conference fees for BONUS Network members are discounted. For more information on benefits and how to join, go to: www.aacnnursing.org/Leadership-Networks/BONUS

Become a People Centered Leader: Influence, Inspire, and Impact

Would you like to have more influence on the people you lead or people around you? This session helps you better understand yourself and equips you with the tools necessary to understand others so that you can discover how to influence, inspire, and impact others.

Dr. Angela Moss

Professor and Assistant Dean of Faculty Practice

Building Long-Term Faculty Practice Financial Sustainability While Staying True to Your Education and Service Mission

With more than three decades of experience, the Rush University, College of Nursing, Office of Faculty Practice (OFP) is a leader in providing comprehensive, innovative nursing services to vulnerable populations. In the past 5 years, OFP has experienced over 600% growth and currently has an annual revenue over $3.5M. This presentation describes factors contributing to the rapid growth, including strategic vision, staffing strategies, business plan, and diverse financial structure.

Dr. Steve Bedwell

Educator, Researcher, and Stand-Up Comedian

Leadership Plenary: How To Miss The Obvious, Stress Yourself Out, and Get Nothing Done

To succeed, we need to understand why we sometimes fail. Dr. Steve Bedwell offers an entertaining and highly interactive professional development masterclass. Learn about Habit Hacking, a three-step system for avoiding burnout and responding to leadership (and personal) challenges more mindfully. Effective, science-smart tactics will be presented in straightforward terms that you can be put to work immediately.
