Florida State University built a social media outreach plan using three major platforms.

Social Media Campaign Elements
Florida State University research assistants developed a Twitter account and posted a variety of videos, TikToks, and other forms of video content.

The strategy for Instagram was to post several Tik Tos with music and messages and flyers that were appealing to college age students.

See how Florida State is #BuildingVaxConfidence on social media!